

March Update

Word of mouth ... it's how we grow!

Spread the word ... We'll make it easy!

-  HOST a virtual party. We'll help you with everything -- we'll even run the Zoom! You just create your guest list and decide on the fun stuff.
-  INVITE friends to a Happy Hour Zoom-Together
-  SEND an email to friends describing why Impact SA is meaningful to you and include the link to our website: www.impactsanantonio.org
-  ASK friends to join you at an event such as Membership in Motion or the upcoming Spring Fling
-  TALK about us!

President's Message: We Are Philanthropists!

Many think that to be considered a philanthropist you have to give away millions or even billions of dollars, but this definition is too narrow and limiting. To me, being a philanthropist means sharing a love of humanity, opening your heart to help others and giving generously of your time and treasure.

Agency update: Construction Careers Academy

The tiny home that students at Construction Careers Academy are working on now is a bit different from their usual project.

The Northside Independent School District recently donated a school bus to the magnet program. So instead of creating a tiny home from scratch, the students are ripping out seats and preparing to renovate the bus as a place to live.

Member profile: Marian Sokol

Marian Sokol is well-known in the San Antonio nonprofit community due to her many years of work for social service agencies. Joining Impact San Antonio was an obvious move for her, though she feels she should have done it sooner. We talked with her recently about her membership.
